Last Word Archive | New Scientist At school we were shown that heating a bar magnet caused it to lose its magnetism. How then, if the iron core of Earth is at a temperature high enough to liquefy it, does it generate a vast ... About This Website - Gwern.net 'Blog posts' might be the answer. But I have read blogs for many years and most blog posts are the triumph of the hare over the tortoise. They are meant to be read by a few people on a weekday in 2004 and never again, and are quickly abandoned—and perhaps as Assange says, not a moment too soon. (But isn't that sad? Writers and Editors - Narrative nonfiction "Like a novel, narrative nonfiction imposes structure, theme and subtext to events, place and character. Unlike novelists, authors of narrative nonfiction must live with the fact that real people and real facts seldom conform very tidily to these conventions. Current Projects – Onyx Path Publishing This page breaks down our products coming soon for each game line. For a more detailed breakdown of the status of each project, please see the weekly Monday Meeting notes blog. Please note that this is simply products coming soon: the lack of projects listed for a given game line is not an indication that no further products will ever be released for that line. Snow - Lightspeed Magazine - Science Fiction & Fantasy John Crowley was born in the appropriately liminal town of Presque Isle, Maine in 1942, his father then an officer in the US Army Air Corps. He grew up in Vermont, northeastern Kentucky and (for the longest stretch) Indiana, where he went to high school and college.
