The Devil Bird of Sri Lanka. The spot-bellied eagle owl is the most likely candidate. The largest of the 12 species of owls found in Sri Lanka, it flies silently through its thick jungle habitat on wings that span well over a metre. From beneath its prominent brown and white ear tufts glare huge black eyes, able to spot prey from high in the air in the darkness of night. Devil Bird - Wikipedia Devil Bird. The precise identity of this bird is one of the mysteries of the Ceylon jungles. Its eerie cries have been attributed to a variety of birds. The most likely candidates however are: the forest eagle-owl (Bubo nipalensis) for the up country area, the hawk-eagles and the crested honey-buzzard (Pernis ptilorhynchus ruficollis)...
