Tony Blair's 'education, education, education' slogan placed education at the forefront of political agendas. But, perhaps the 'policisation' of education is part of the problem. Today, education is valued for its potential contribution to economic development, but it is no longer considered important for itself. Wasted: Why Education Isn't Educating - P2Pvalue blog Wasted: Why Education Isn't Educating. While some cast parents as the villain in the drama, others assign them the role of the saviours of education. The author notes that far too many teachers adopt the attitude that the parent is the enemy, alledging that those children who behave badly at school are mirroring the behaviour of their parents.
